

Lead Programmer

Summary

Act as Lead Programmer for one or more studies, taking responsibility for leading the programmers to ensure a successful delivery.

Responsibilities

- Act as lead programmer for client projects and studies.
- Contribute to the maintenance of the project plan.
- Proactively manage programming resource task assignments, scope change and risks.
- Contribute to the management of the delivery of projects within budget.
- Manage client expectations and issue resolution.

Personality

- Good communicator.
- Good organisational skills.
- Good negotiation skills.
- Ability to multitask and delegate.

Daily Interactions

- Build an effective and collaborative relationship with the client.
- Lead the internal Veramed programming team to deliver on time, within budget, high quality work.
- Provide support and mentoring for more inexperienced programmers on the team.

Opportunities

- Potential to develop into Portfolio Lead role.
- Contributing to initiatives that consider employees, the environment and our local communities as part of our B Corp accreditation.
- Peer mentoring and/or line management.
- Taking ownership of a study or group of studies and implementing new ideas and processes to aid delivery.

Beneficial experience

- Understanding of the clinical drug development process and relevant disease areas.
- Awareness of industry and project standards as well as ICH guidelines.
- Experienced in the implementation of data standards at a study level.
- Interpersonal/teamwork and communications skills for effective interactions.
- Proficiency in using SAS or other statistical software (e.g. R).
- Team leadership skills with a focus on results for timely and accurate completion of competing deliverables.
- Demonstrated problem solving ability and attention to detail.